

I was always tied up at work as a normal salesman. Led by my wife, I registered at Busan Manmin Holiness Church in April, 1996, but I didn't have any spiritual experience.

In February 2003, I had this turning point in my Christian life. My father was sick in bed with cancer. The members of my family gathered their hearts for his salvation. Letting him receive Dr. Jaerock Lee's prayer, they held onto God with fasting and prayer. Finally, my father accepted the Lord. He saw Heaven with his spiritual eyes open, and a week later, he peacefully drew his last breath. Seeing this, I came to believe in the existence of Heaven and Hell. In addition, a few years ago, I was healed of urolithiasis by receiving the 'Prayer for the Sick' through ARS on the phone and my faith grew even more with this experience.

Working in 'A' Company, I carried out God-given duties as President of the 1st Men's Mission, a member of Construction Committee, Head of Transportation Department, Leader of the Choir and the like. One day, my wife and I received Senior Pastor's prayer with the prayer title, 'Bless me to become the head in my workplace.'

In May of 2006, I was appointed as the Manager of Gwangju Branch. I had to live far away from my family. But I later realized all

"I Received a Special Promotion by Wisdom Given by God"

Deacon Jaesik Son
(Busan Manmin Holiness Church)

of this was the way to blessing. At that time, the sales figures of Gwangju branch was the lowest of all domestic branches. The job was to sell pharmaceutical products that are distributed to hospitals or pharmacies. At first, I was really at a loss. I didn't know what to do in that unfamiliar city where I didn't have any acquaintances. Almost on a biweekly basis, I came to Busan and kept the Sabbath with my family and again left for Gwangju at 5 AM on Monday. I was lonely as well as tired.

The first thing I had to do was to increase the sales figures at the Gwangju branch. On Mondays, I arrived at the office earlier than others and started working by listening to the 'Day Staring Prayer' via the telephonic ARS. I changed the office into a cozy atmosphere so that the staff could work hard in a home-like environment. I tried to give strength and encourage them rather than to point out their mistakes or rebuke them. And I also took care of their family affairs so that their families might be in peace. Also I sent them on a domestic or overseas trip as a bonus or boost the morale through fellowship meetings such as mountain climbing and picnics. Particularly, I tried to make those who were treating customers work with a comfortable heart so that they could work to their full potentials. As a result, all the staffs were united as one in heart and tried their best in their work. The sale figure got increasingly higher and finally won the first place of all domestic branches in just three months I took charge of the branch. God did bless me as I acted according to the word.

One day I asked the head office if I could transfer to Seoul or Daejeon branch I wanted to focus more on my God-given duties in Busan Manmin Holiness Church and spend more time with my family. The person in charge became rather embarrassed because I achieved excellent sales figures at Gwangju branch. He said there wasn't a position anymore. My wife always prayed for the growth of my faith and the workplace. She also didn't forget to go to Seoul and receive the prayer from Senior Pastor with faith on my behalf.

Finally, on February 1, 2009, I was appointed as the Manager of Daejeon branch. It was an answer to the prayer. I could go to Daejeon from Busan by KTX (Korea Train Express) and it only took 1 hour and 40 minutes. So, I was happy because I could do the church works more at Busan Manmin Holiness Church and have fellowship with the members.

While working at Daejeon branch, I received a significant position that I supported the Gwangju and Jeonju branches. Also, Daejeon branch had the lowest sales figures just like Gwangju branch had the lowest sales figures when I first started working there. Having learned know-how to God's blessing, I also worked diligently there praying and serving the staff. Surprisingly, this branch also won the first place in sales figures from April to December 2009.

That's not all, on January 1, I received a special promotion to a position where I managed 16 branches while working at the head office in Seoul. I give all the thanks and glory to God, and I also want to express thanks to Senior Pastor who prayed for me.

"Since the Beginning of the Year We Have Been Overflowing with Blessings"

Manmin Members Are Being Promoted, Passing Examinations, Being Awarded Scholarships and Receiving Financial Blessings

Despite frigid winter weather, we are expecting even more during this 'Year of Reaping' as the stories of blessing from our members have kept pouring in since the beginning of the New Year.

At the 2010 Opening Ceremony held on January 4th, Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee stated, "The year 2010 should be the starting point from which our members will abundantly reap according to what they have sown so far for the kingdom of God with their prayers, offerings, and faithfulness." To this day, Manmin members have prepared vessels for receiving blessings by offering prayer and worship services with all their hearts, keeping the perfect Sabbath, paying the whole tithe and showing God-pleasing deeds. Through the messages preached, the members learned the secrets to receive answers and blessings within God's justice, and they are glorifying God in their families, workplaces and businesses by applying the secrets to their lives.

Elder Wang-geun Song, President of Financiers' Mission was promoted to Vice Manager of Soha Branch of IBK (Industrial Bank of Korea) on January 14th. He was faithful in the church working as a district leader and a member of the Financial Committee as well as in his workplace. Elder Song told us, "At the year-end of last year, I offered a vowed prayer for the improvement of the sales figures of our branch and for my promotion. God answered me." Elder Song also delivered the happy news of other members of Financiers' Mission whom also received promotions this year. They are Deacon Jonggon Baek, Deaconess Jong-ae Lee and Brother Sang-gu Kim.

Deacon Jaesik Son, 49, received a special promotion from Daejeon Branch Manager of 'A' Company to a position where he manages 16 branches at the head office in Seoul (see related article on page 4). Deacon Tae-hyung Kim, Manager of the local branch of Shinhan Life Lime Insurance Prime Inc, 32, was blessed to pay twice the his previous tithe. Deacon Kim was thankful saying, "After I repented of the discord between me and my wife, the blessing came upon me." Deaconess Hunsun Chung, 48, received material blessing when her house, which had been unsold for a year, was sold at a good price. Also, her husband's business stabilized and her family became more peaceful.

Sister Jeong-gyeol Kim, 25, was accepted by the Department of Biotechnology of Korea University Graduate School. She received additional blessing of being able to receive scholarships totaling about $6,000 in US currency per semester through graduation. While preparing for examination, she thought pleasing God was the first priority. She said, "I think God blessed me as I studied hard while depending on God and not taking a rest from reading the Bible and continuing to attend Daniel Prayer Meeting." Brother Seungcheol Song, 23, and Sister Jueun Han also received scholarships this semester. Senior Deaconess Insook Park, 48, passed a qualification examination for college entrance after studying for 70 days with God-given wisdom and thereby proved that anything can be made possible within faith (see related article on page 4). In addition to these people receiving blessings, there are many members who were offered employment in good positions or received overflowing material blessings.

The members' material blessings led to the church's financial blessing including the financial blessing of domestic branch churches. So the kingdom of God is expected to be accomplished more actively during 2010. Not only members in Korea, but overseas Manmin members are experiencing overflowing blessings and are sending offerings along with letters of thanksgiving to Manmin Central Church. Pastor Grace Lee of Nepal Manmin Mission Center wrote in her letter, "From the beginning of the year, we have been overflowing with testimonies of blessings such as receiving employment with good working conditions and receiving financial blessing after repenting of not having paid the whole tithe. I am excited and filled with expectation thinking how much God is going to bless us during the year 2010."

Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee is presenting the way to blessing through his sermons entitled 'Cultivating the Heart-field,' and 'The Law of Sowing and Reaping' that are being preached during Sunday Services in January and February of this year.

"A Forty-eight Year-Old Woman Passed the Qualification Examination for College Entrance"

Senior Deaconess Insook Park
(District Leader of the 21st Parish)

Due to financial difficulty of my family, I couldn't go on to a middle school and instead started earning money. I comforted myself thinking I could study again sometime later.

Many years passed and I became a 48-year-old housewife. Being always busy, I didn't realize the lack of education would be a handicap in social life. Before I registered in our church, I prepared for the qualification examination for middle school entrance. But I failed two times. I decided to give up because I lost confidence and didn't have enough time to prepare.

One day, Senior Pastor preached in his sermon that church workers should be qualified both in spirit and in flesh to take care of countless souls who will come to church. I wanted to challenge the entrance requirements again. Moreover, carrying out a God-given duty as a district leader, I realized the necessity of education even more. I wanted to understand the Bible more deeply and gain confidence when I treated the members of various backgrounds. I thought I shouldn't neglect my duty given by God. So, I received the counsel of the Parish Leader Pastor Hakyoung Lim about this matter, and he encouraged me to challenge.

So in 2008, I took care of the district members during the day and prepared for qualification examination for high school entrance at night. Even though I failed two times previously, I passed the 4 of the 7 subjects so I could study easier. If one gets a score of more than 60 points in a specific subject, he is exempt from this subject at the next test.

I visited the members during the day and made sure I attended Daniel Prayer Meeting at night. I prayed that God might give me wisdom and ability and so that I could study without fatigue. With passion toward souls, I took care of district members during the day and studied at night. Even though I was very busy with God-given duties, I could carry them out with pleasure because I had an assurance I would pass the exam if God was on my side. Seeing this heart and faith, God was on my side and helped me. Including my husband, all my family members became strong supporters of my challenge.

As a result, I studied the three subjects English, math, and science that I couldn't pass in 2008 after 5 months and passed the qualification examination for high school entrance. From February 2009 for 70 days, I prepared for the qualification examination for college entrance and finally passed it! Through this experience I came to have firmer faith that anything can be made possible within the Lord. I give thanks to the Lord.

David Eu (Singapore), M.D in Family Medicine, is a member of our church. He is providing medical service in Haiti which has suffered tremendous damage from earthquakes. From the afternoon of January 22 when he arrived in Haiti, he has been treating hundreds of patients a day. He wrote in his letter, "Most of patients are suffering from trauma, and they are many children suffering from diarrhea and vomiting. The problem is that we don't have enough medication for these children. So the best thing I could do was to pray for them with the handkerchief and let them drink Muan Sweet Water.

Although there's not much we can do for the people of this country, God can do great works for them. I ask for your prayers that we might deliver the love of God well." Last December, his youngest son named David Eu Junior was close to death with a urinary tract infection and sepsis, but he received healing after the prayer from Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee.

‘Those Who Wash their Robes’

“But you have a few people in Sardis who have not soiled their garments; and they will walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. He who overcomes will thus be clothed in white garments; and I will not erase his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels.” (Revelation 3:4-5)

The garment here spiritually refers to the heart of man. So, today’s scripture does not mean that we have to wash our clothes, but has the meaning of casting off the uncleanness of our hearts and to sanctify our hearts. As the end time of the world draws closer people’s consciences become dulled. The unrighteous and immoral things that people used to feel ashamed of years ago are openly revealed by so many people today.

No matter what kind of life the people are leading, however, you must not become stained with the world. You have to lead a sanctified life that is different from the world. You must not compromise with the world saying, “Just about everyone else is doing these things.” You have to be on guard keeping your hearts and bodies by reflecting on the word of God.

Even though some brothers in faith are in spiritual slumber, you should neither feel comforted nor think, “It should be OK for me to stop washing my robe, just for a while.” You cannot wash a robe for someone else and no one else can wash your robe. So, you have to stay awake and clear-minded and diligently adorn yourselves as the brides of the Lord, and, thus you have to prepare white robes. Then, what can you do to wash your robes until they are white?

First, to wash your robes, you have to hope for the things that are spiritual and get rid of the adulterous things that are hostile toward God.

If you love God and the Lord, you cannot love the world. It is because the ruler of the world is the arch enemy of God, the devil and Satan. That’s why God says in James 4:4, “You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.”

From the standpoint of mankind, when fleshly adultery and spiritual adultery are compared, the fleshly adultery may be considered more serious and grave. But in fact, if you have no spiritual adultery within you, you will never commit adultery in flesh. If you love God to the fullest measure, you have naturally cast off fleshly adultery. But many of you possess the attribute and commit spiritual adultery. In doing so you love the world and in loving the world you may even be driven to the point of committing adultery of the flesh.

Therefore, you should have a longing heart for spiritual things in your heart. Otherwise, worldly lusts will flood into your heart as you see, hear and experience fleshly things. You seek worldly pleasures thinking, “That lady’s dress looks so elegant! I’m going to buy the same dress to wear later,” and “I heard about a new restaurant. Soon I will pay it a visit.” In the world there are so many things that urge you to seek the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the boastful pride of life (1 John 2:15). If you follow the urging of the flesh and seek it, you will put great distance between you and God. So, you should not set your eyes on earthly things but always look up to heaven and diligently wash your robes.

Secondly, you should neither compare others to yourself nor judge others.

When people compare themselves with the others and judge them, they reveal many evils. For example, suppose a new believer who has come to the church some time before you is favored by seniors of the church and the people around him. Suppose that he has received higher position than yours. Then, how would you feel? Would you be grateful as if you were commended along with him and determined to serve and encourage him to do even better? In that matter, those who involve fleshly thoughts may have become jealous and tried to reveal his faults.

If you really hope for Heaven, it doesn’t matter to you who is more favored and who is more commended. You have to think critically of whether you serve everyone, whether you are sacrificing yourself for the benefits of others and whether you rejoice with the truth. Then, you can be recognized by God and receive blessing and give many testimonies.

If you all become one, please God, and prepare yourselves as proper vessels in the fullness of the Holy Spirit, God himself will work and bless you. You should neither compare others to yourself nor judge others, and you have to see, hear and think of everything only in goodness all the time. To rejoice with the truth, serve one another and become one in love is to wash your robes.

Thirdly, you have to fervently seek spirit. But what is important is that you have to do it in a spiritual way.

For you who live in this world to experience the spiritual realm, it costs much effort. But if someone who has made the way for the spiritual realm ahead of you and leads you, it will be much easier. Joshua always followed Moses like his shadow, so he could clearly understand the will of God in that spiritual accompaniment. That’s why he became the successor of Moses, and performed the miracle of God of making the sun and the moon still. But, you should check whether you have sought a man of spirit and understand exactly for what purpose you are following him and what kind of fruits you have to bear.

When our Lord Jesus manifested miraculous signs and wonders, numerous people gathered and followed Him. But what did He say to them? John 6:26 says, “I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled.” However, when many people left Jesus, in John 6:68, Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life.” When you realize the truth, keep it in mind and put it into action, you can bear the fruit of spiritual accompaniment. Therefore, I wish for you to hold fast to hope for heaven and complete adorning yourselves as pure and spotless brides of the Lord soon.

“Leading Europeans to Return to God”

Mission Report: Laid the Foundation Stone of European Mission in Brussels, Belgium for a Year

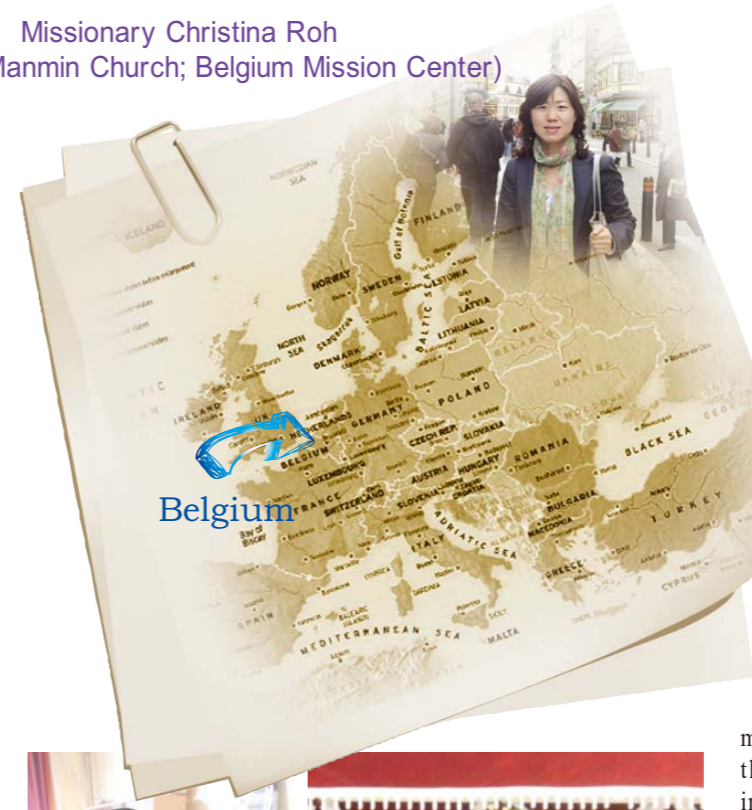

Missionary Christina Roh
(Brussels Manmin Church; Belgium Mission Center)

European Mission Network Established on God-laid Foundation

Brussels, where the EU headquarters is located, is an international city located in the center of Western Europe. Major countries in Europe are within 3-hour distance by plane from this city. I reside in this city, and my primary mission here is to establish the network of the European mission. Currently, we are connected with about 50 churches in over ten different countries. This is actually an amazing thing. Since they consider themselves as authentic Christians, it is hard for an Asian woman to draw their attention. But this was possible because 60% of the churches have already heard about Dr. Jaerock Lee’s ministry. Many of them have watched the overseas crusades conducted by Dr. Lee on CDs. All of them longed for the holiness gospel and the ministry of power and were well aware of the handkerchief prayer (Acts 19:11-12).

This is one occurrence that actually happened. I met a pastor and handed him Dr. Jaerock Lee’s book My Life, My Faith and the ‘The Power of God’ DVD. Two days later, I received an e-mail from him. In the e-mail he confessed as follows, “I was deeply touched by the Holy Spirit while reading this book. I couldn’t stop shedding tears as I could envision the powerful works of God occurring.”

As Dr. Jaerock Lee’s books and ‘The Power of God’ DVD are being distributed to more pastors—from 100 pastors to 200 pastors—the European mission network is steadily being established.

Witnessing Churches and Pastors Changing by the Holiness

Not being able to find a good example to follow, they just consider what they think is right as the truth. Even Christians acknowledge things that are claimed by other religions as the truth if they don’t know the real truth.

Nowadays, many Russian youngsters act without thinking what kind impact their behavior might have. Moreover, they want to have what they want immediately and they want to enjoy what they want now. They think the country or schools should take responsibility for them. So, some of them visit churches for this same kind of purpose. They come to church because they want others to understand their inner problems and comfort them. Unless church members try to understand their hearts, these youngsters cannot adjust to church life.

Only by the holiness gospel, they can be changed. Since they don’t practice even the most fundamental basics of Christian life such as praying and attending worship

Gospel and the Power of God

In 2003, although I was carrying out God-given duty as the President of the 3rd Canaan Mission, I found my faith stagnant and wanted to find a breakthrough. Pastor Deborah Lee, President of MMTC (Manmin Mission Training Center), recommended that I take part in short-term mission in Nepal. This is why I visited Nepal in September of the year. Even after the mission trip, I couldn’t forget the Nepalese souls I held in my heart. I felt so sorry because they couldn’t enjoy the authority of God’s true children.

As I worked as an assistant administrator at MMTC from July 2004, I further recognized the importance of world mission. In January 2005, I participated in the European vision trip. We visited one of the churches in Belgium and attended a service there. There was no sermon during the service. After they praised for an hour, the pastor came up on the platform and spoke for about 5 minutes. Then, the entire service was over. Witnessing this, I felt sorry. I remember an unforgettable thing that one of the members knelt down in the middle of the praising time and prayed shedding tears. This person seemed to long for God so earnestly and looked thirsty in spirit. It seemed that she wanted to meet the Lord but couldn’t find the way.

Having a fellowship with those are preparing praise service at ‘Freedom Church’ of Finland

In May 2006, I took the second vision trip to Europe. When I visited the same church that we had visited during the first mission trip, I found the church totally changed. The pastor was preaching a sermon with Senior Pastor’s book Lecture on the Book of Job. From the previous vision trip of MMTC, this pastor started translating Dr. Jaerock Lee’s books and was greatly impressed by the messages. He gained an assurance and confidence to lead his members as a pastor with this holiness gospel. This church is Brussels Manmin Church (Pastor Guy Davidts).

As an assistant administrator of MMTC, I always had this thought, ‘Who would spread this holiness gospel to many churches and pastors around the world?’ and ‘Who would be the missionary to awaken them?’

Felt the Necessity of Spreading the Gospel and Obtained a Vision toward World Mission

A year later, I visited Europe again on business. When I introduced the holiness gospel and the cases of God’s powerful works manifested through Senior Pastor, many pastors and Christians were changed. I came to have an assurance in my heart.

“Father, please send me to Europe if there’s no missionary prepared yet.”

From that point on, I notified the church and the Senior Pastor that I had a vision toward mission and prepared to become a missionary. Earnest heart and necessity of mission made me have a vision toward mission.

For the six months prior to the time I was commissioned as a missionary in June 2008 after I applied to become a missionary and it was a training period for me to receive God’s answers. When I constantly prayed, the Holy Spirit led me to prepare everything with assurance.

I never say, “It would be difficult.” The reason is that the evangelization of Europe and the world is being accomplished on God-laid foundation. Mission requires to have not only the word of God but the power of God. We have the powerful works of God manifested through Senior Pastor. As much as we are prepared, we can also manifest the power of God.

Why don’t you prepare vessels and greatly accomplish the world mission on Jesus Christ-laid foundation?
