

Europe's Slumber in Gospel Stagnation Was Set Ablaze by The Fire of the Holy Spirit

As the gospel stagnated and an anti-Christianity trend increased in Europe, Dr. Jaerock Lee conducted the Estonian Miracle Healing Crusade 2010 in Tallinn, Estonia on October 30th and 31st. He testified to the living God and Jesus Christ, and God confirmed his messages with the signs in which countless souls have been healed and the holy fire was set ablaze. This crusade was broadcast live to 220 nations via 37 TV stations and satellites including GCN, DayStar, CNL, TBN-Russia, GRACE TV, Family TV, and Salvation TV.

The Estonian Miracle Healing Crusade was recorded as a Christian event with the most attendees (Saku Suurhall Arena) Speaker Dr. Jaerock Lee delivered the messages titled "God the Creator" and "Jesus Christ" and prayed for the sick.

"I am Bishop, Dr. Robert van Heulen, European Director of AEGA (Association of Evangelical Gospel Assemblies) that has its 800,000 members in 64 countries. I had suffered from heart disease for long, but last year it worsened and the doctors said only 20% of my heart functioned. They said I should not expect to live much longer.

I asked Dr. Jaerock Lee, Senior Pastor of Manmin Central Church to pray for me transcending space and time and passed the crisis.

Before the Estonian Miracle Healing Crusade was held, my wife heard a voice saying "Your husband will be healed if you go to Dr. Jaerock Lee." I flew from the Netherlands to Estonia depending on a wheelchair. The moment I received Dr. Lee's prayer with faith, the color returned to my face and strength came down upon my legs.

And then I was able to get up from the wheelchair and began walking without it. Through Dr. Lee's prayer from the podium, I became more strengthened and came to walk without the wheelchair. Hallelujah!"

The Holiness Gospel and the Power of God Are Conquering Sri Lanka!

Two Pastors' Seminars Bore the Fruits of 25 Branch Churches and 56 Associative Churches

Colombo, Sri Lanka. Pastor Joseph Han, who is conducting ministry in India, accompanied Rev. Taesik Gil as the Korean-English translator.

When they organized the healing crusade and pastors' seminar in April, one hundred Sri Lankan pastors attended and Speaker Rev. Taesik Gil delivered the messages titled "Why Did God Place the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil?" and "Why Is Jesus our only Savior?" After this crusade and seminar ended, 4 churches made the decision to join in the ministry of Manmin as branch churches and 13 churches registered as associative churches.

Many pastors in the Sri Lanka, a country of the southern coast of the Indian subcontinent, were deeply touched and blessed with the gospel of holiness and various signs and miracles that followed the teaching of the gospel. Many are now longing to participate in the ministry of Manmin Central Church.

On November 10, three Sri Lankan pastors visited Manmin Central Church. They are Rev. Sandun Sri Kumara Wijesekara, Chairman of the Spiritual Community and Pastors' Coordinator of Jeevana Diya Church; Rev. Mahendran Janarthan Pillai, National Board Director and Coordinator of Pastors Fellowship of Gospel Tabernacle Church; and Rev. Nishan Cooray, National Board Director of Jeevana Diya Church and Coordinator of Manmin Ministries Sri Lanka.

This past April and September, they organized the "Sri Lankan Pastors' Seminars and Healing Crusades" with Rev. Taesik Gil at the Ramada Hotel in treatment due to lung cancer, was healed and many others were healed of various diseases including heart diseases, nervous-system disorders, and dermatitis. Evil spirits were driven away by the fiery works of the Holy Spirit through the handkerchief of God's power. When these extraordinary miracles were performed, God was glorified greatly.

The Sri Lankan pastors in attendance were moved by the manifestations of God's power and spiritual messages. They requested Manmin Central Church continually hold pastors' seminars and healing crusades. Among those pastors, three Sri Lankan pastors flew to South Korea and visited Manmin Central Church. During their stay they had a meeting with the senior pastor, Dr. Jaerock Lee. They also visited the Muan sweet water site and learned many things about the ministry of Manmin Central Church. Their visitation to Manmin is expected to bring the rapid spreading of the holiness gospel in Sri Lanka.

The 2010 survey of the UN says the population of Sri Lanka is 20.4 million, and Wikipedia says Buddhism is about 70% of the population, Hinduism 15%, Christianity 7.5%, and Islam 7.5%. Its official languages are Sinhala, Tamil, and English. Since last September, the Sinhala edition of Manmin News has been printed and distributed in Sri Lanka. Dr. Jaerock Lee's autobiography My Life My Faith: Volume 1 is being translated and the English edition of The Message of the Cross is read by many Sri Lankan Christians.

The November issue of the Pictorial Journal of Korea dealt with Dr. Jaerock Lee's ministry as its cover story. It says Dr. Lee has planted hope into the hearts of countless people with the life-filled messages and manifestations of God's power, and received the President's Volunteer Service Award from US President Barack Obama. The story appears on 6 pages of the pictorial journal (www.hankukhwabo.com).

A Spiritual Servant

"I affirm, brethren, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily." (1 Corinthians 15:31)

In a fleshly sense, the apostle Paul had much to boast about. He was of the nation of Israel and the tribe of Benjamin. As to the righteousness which is in the Law, he was a 'Hebrew of Hebrews' who was found blameless. He was a citizen of Rome. He was a disciple of Gamaliel, the leading authority in the Sanhedrin in the mid-first century.

What is the reason that the apostle Paul put himself "died daily" and considered everything he had as rubbish? It is because he loved and wanted to resemble the Lord Jesus Christ who had obeyed the will of God the Father to the point of death and opened the door to salvation. The apostle Paul was able to lead countless souls to the path to salvation.

If we serve as a fleshly pastor or servant during our lifetime, we cannot be commended by the Lord on the last day. We have to become a spiritual servant that is pleasing to God like the apostle Paul. "Servants" here refer not only to pastors but also to all workers who serve the Lord. What shall we do to become a spiritual servant and bear abundant fruits?

1. We have to get rid of our pride.

A spiritual servant doesn't have any sense of 'self'. There is no desire to be lifted up and no desire to seek fleshly joy and pleasure. There is no need to be praised by others and no stubbornness that insists on personal opinion or benefit. If those attributes remain in your heart, you cannot be in peace when you are not esteemed by others. Pride is followed by some other untruths: passing judgment and condemnation on others, complaining, and not rejoicing in the truth.

When others are praised and exalted while you are reproached, if you have pride, you lose heart and become frustrated. You may think you are not being recognized even if you have loved God much more than others and borne more fruits than they. However, if you have no pride within you, you have no reason to be disheartened or sorrowful. A dead person doesn't feel pain when he is beaten and doesn't get upset when he is ignored.

A person who professes, "I die daily" should let there be only truth

maybe I'd better try to help him' or 'Even though she is worse than me, I have to serve my seniors politely.' They seem to think in truth, but they are blinding themselves with their malcontent and judgmental way of thinking. In the end they are not able to accomplish true humility because they believe that they are walking in the truth.

The true humility God wants us to possess is to lower oneself and to serve others fully and completely from the bottom of your hearts.

3. We should not cease to pray fervently.

The kingdom of God cannot be accomplished either by fleshly wisdom or by fleshly strength (1 Corinthians 4:20). It is not true you can lead many souls to truth and blessing with eloquent speech. You have to receive spiritual power to drive away forces of darkness from them and move their hearts and lead them to act by the truth. Dying daily and becoming a man of whole spirit is possible with the help of the Lord and the Holy Spirit.

In order to become perfect and accomplish the kingdom of God, you have to communicate with God all the time and should not commit the sin of ceasing to pray. Only then can you receive the strength of God and be guided only to the right path by the works of the Holy Spirit through detailed prayers to God.

If you cease to pray you cannot discern the will of God, and then rather than following the ways of God you follow your self-righteousness, your self-conceived frameworks and your own thoughts. In this way you cannot bear good fruits. Unceasing prayer doesn't mean you are just attending the prayer meeting and saying something just with your lips. You have to offer fervent prayer from the bottom of the heart and you have to call down the power of the Holy Spirit in your communication with God.

When you pray for sanctification, you have to follow the example of Jacob's prayer where he wrestled with the angel at the Jabbok River and received an answer. And you have to pray for the church, the shepherd, and the flock and your God-given duties more eagerly than for your own problems and desires.

in him. He has to cultivate and accomplish spiritual love in which he can rejoice with the truth and seek the other's benefits in any circumstances. He has to take delight in seeing someone else receive greater benefit. As you throw away your pride, you can accomplish the heart of an unworthy servant and receive the strength to fulfill spiritual works. In addition, since you can think only according to the Spirit and be guided by the spirit, you can be recognized by God.

2. We have to be humble.

Philippians 2:3 reads, "Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit, but with humility of mind regard one another as more important than yourselves." If you throw away pride and become humble, you can see other's good points and cease from insisting you are better and your ideas have greater merit. You can measure the other's heart. If you direct or command someone after being promoted to higher position and treat subordinates rudely, it's shameful even from a worldly perspective.

'Humility' here doesn't refer only to outward humility. Some believers obey the directions of those in authority over them and seem to even serve children by being attentive to what they say when speaking with them. They often take the initiative to try to handle the more difficult tasks. But, because of these deeds of service they think they are serving others and fail to discover fleshly things deep within their hearts. In that sense, they may think, 'Since that person is lacking in a few aspects, so

At Thirty My Dream of a Professional Doctorate in Law Came True, Not by My Efforts but by His Grace

At just 30 years old, Sister Jaewon Park received a doctoral degree of law from Dankook University on August 20, 2010 and now is working as senior researcher at the Korea Institute of Intellectual Property. When she is asked "How were you able to be so successful in receiving your doctorate of law?" she answers, "God can let me accomplish more than I can do for His glory." Now let's read her candid story.

Q: "Were you born into a Christian home?"

A: "No. My parents told me the truth of Buddhism is more correct than that of Christianity. In the July of 2003, I was guided to attend the Sunday morning worship service of Manmin Central Church by a senior of mine at the university. I enjoyed the worship service from the moment I entered the sanctuary and registered at the church as a regular member without any uncomfortable sense of rejection. Everything was by the grace of God. From that day I attended Sunday morning service regularly, and began to enjoy church life with the help and love of a few leaders of Canaan Mission."

Q: "What was the turning point in your faith?"

A: "In May of 2004, I was attending the 12th Two-week Special Revival Meeting and witnessed firsthand many people receiving healing and testifying to their healing by the prayer of Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee. My heart began changing and I came to possess fervor for the Lord. Worshipping God in truth and spirit at the services, I was determined to glorify God through excellent results in continued study."

Q: "Do you think formal study and faith are mutually exclusive?"

A: "I think we can study well because we have faith. In my case, when I became determined to excel in my field of study and be used greatly as a worker of God, I progressed very successfully in my studies. With this faith I could study hard during graduate school and also rely on God through continual prayers at Daniel Prayer Meeting. I prayed to God in deciding the topic of master degree paper and while writing it. Throughout the course of graduate school, I always earned the all A+ points and earned scholarships each semester."

Q: "In your social life, how did you manage the invitations to drinking parties?"

A: "During the graduate school, I was often invited to drinking parties by my professors after class. At first I drank to please them. But listening to the Word of God delivered from the podium, I determined not to drink anymore and when I was invited again, I politely told my professors I would not drink because I now attended church as a Christian. They understood me and did not insist on me joining the drinking anymore. I felt my hope for Heaven was increasing with my obedience to the Word of God."

Q: "Was there a crisis in your faith?"

A: "During my doctoral course, I got a chance to go to United States and study abroad as a scholarship student by a supporting grant of $10,000 from Rotary International Cultural Ambassadorial Scholarship Committee. There was no branch church of Manmin in the city I was supposed to live, but I flew to US with thankfulness and thought that I would be able to attend worship services via the Internet. But intermittently I skipped attending Friday all-night service and when I attended Sunday worship services, I wore comfortable clothes instead of dressing more tidily. I also failed to worship God in truth and spirit. Many days I ceased praying and enjoyed the liberal American life and made excuses in my mind. But in its midst I discovered my arrogance and changing heart. After coming back to Korea, I was very thankful and happy in leading a proper Christian life."

Q: "How could you earn the all A+ points while working as a researcher?"

A: "After coming back from US, I returned to my doctoral course and was employed as a researcher by the Korea Institute of Intellectual Property. Consequently, I couldn't attend all my classes every week, but professors allowed me to make appointments with them in advance. I was supposed to express the results of my study for each class. I prayed for this work, and God gave me wisdom and strength and I could concentrate on preparation and do my best."

Q: "How could you attend the 16th UNCITRAL Working Group VI Security Interests in Intellectual Property Right as a Korean representative?"

A: "In writing a doctoral degree paper during the final semester, I didn't have confidence to complete the paper because I was so busy with my work. But while praying I possessed the faith by which I would be able to do it with Senior Pastor's prayer. In July of 2009, I told him I would begin writing the paper at a full scale and attend a UN international conference held with the same theme as that of my dissertation and received his prayer. Since the conference was supposed to produce the final decision, I eagerly desired to attend it. But it was not easy to attend the conference as a Korean representative. When Dr. Lee prayed for me saying, "Let her attend the UN conference," I answered "Amen" with faith. Four months later, in November of 2009, I was chosen as a Korean representative to attend the Security Right in Intellectual Property(IP) Conference held in Vienna of Austria under the auspices of UN."

Q: "Were there any problems in receiving the doctoral degree?"

A: "In August of 2010, the day of the examination of the dissertation was drawing nearer and I couldn't concentrate on completing the paper because I felt muddled under heavy mental strain. I repented I had not prayed faithfully because of paper composition and began praying and relying on God. God gave me wisdom and strength enough to complete the paper, and I successfully passed three examinations conducted by five professors."

Q: "Is there any other blessing accompanying your doctorate in law?"

A: "On October 1, I was promoted from researcher to senior researcher and my salary increased. My parents also purchased an office room so that I might not be concerned about the monthly rental fee. Hallelujah! It's blessing over blessing!"
