“Many Powerful Works Happened Transcending Space and Time!”

The Manmin Members Joined Manmin Summer Retreat via GCN All Over the World

In the spiritual realm governed by God who is spirit, things impossible in the physical realm can be made possible. Even if people are far apart in the physical world, if they are one in heart in the spiritual realm, things can happen as though they were together in the same place physically.

If you receive the prayer with understanding of this principle of the spiritual realm, you can receive God's answer transcending space and time. An example of such works transcending space and time is recorded in Matthew 8. A centurion asked Jesus to heal one of his servants who was paralyzed and with only the word of Jesus, he was healed.

Such works also happened during Manmin Summer Retreat 2018 held in Deogyusan Resort in Muju on August 6, 2018. Many people who participated via GCN experienced the Holy Spirit's works transcending space and time as well as the people in the retreat venue (photos). When Rev. Soojin Lee, President of Pastors' Association prayed for the sick on the stage in Muju with the handkerchief on which Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee had prayed (Acts 19:11-12), many powerful works occurred all around the world.

Sister Debora is attending Nairobi Manmin Holiness Church in Kenya. Her brother was dying due to the late stage of AIDS and tuberculosis. But after he received the prayer, he was strengthened, regained his appetite, and even attended Sunday Morning Service in the church on the following Sunday. Sister Hishigt, age 52, received the prayer in Mongolia, and recovered better eyesight and no longer needed glasses to read books. She was also freed from pain in her toes caused by diabetes.

Sister Roshni Devi, 62, in Delhi Manmin Church, India stated, "I had pain in my knees and they were swollen. I often received shots of a painkiller, but the pain came back soon. I started to prepare for the retreat by fasting, praying, and listening to Senior Pastor's sermon 'The Message of the Cross.' After the prayer at the retreat, my knee pain and swelling were all gone!"

Sister Annal, 79, in Madurai Manmin Church, India said the fire of the Holy Spirit came upon her whole body. She was then released from the pain and swelling in her right leg that had been fractured before. Brother Mayavelru, 34, in Chennai Manmin Church, India was healed of spinal fracture. Many other members experienced the power of God as well.

The work transcending space and time also happened to deaf members in other countries. Sister Kanchana Srimee, 32, in Chiang Mai Manmin Church for the Deaf in Thailand, felt a stabbing pain in her right ear and then the ear opened and she could hear. Brother Pascal Pawlikowski, 50, in France came to hear a lot better through both ears, and Sister Premla RajaGopal, 40, in Malaysia was able to hear better through her right ear.

Senior Deaconess Nagashima Keiko, 47, in Tabata Manmin Church in Tokyo, Japan felt a stabbing pain in her tonsils. Afterwards she received healing. Sister Queenie Ancero, 22, of Cebu Manmin Church in the Philippines finally got a job after the prayer. Many other people testified their hearts' desires were fulfilled.

Honorary Senior Deaconess Kyosun Kim, 81, Parish 5, of Manmin Central Church could not go to the retreat venue because she suffered seriously from dizziness due to her low blood pressure. When she joined the retreat via GCN at home and received the prayer, dizziness was gone and her blood pressure went up to 117. She is now able to freely go out.

Let's give all thanks and glory to God who proved the authenticity of the Bible by showing us His great works.

Russian Pastors in Manmin Summer Retreat 2018

Manmin Summer Retreat 2018 was attended by people from 25 countries. Among them there were bishops and pastors from St. Petersburg, Kaliningrad, and Western Ural in Russia. They did not miss any event including the Seminar, Athletic Meet, and Campfire Praise & Worship. Meantime, they all experienced and felt the love and power of God in happiness.

Pastor Aleksandr Samonov,
Bishop of The Association of Christian Churches of the Kaliningrad Diocese

"It was very hot in Seoul, but it was cool and refreshing at the retreat venue. It was an amazing wonder. The church's organizational strengths were outstanding, and the members served and loved each other. I could feel how well they are united in the Lord."

Pastor Vladimir Osipov,
Chairman of United Holiness
Church of Jesus Christ, Russia

"Manmin is a vital element of this world because the church members show what true love for God is like. The retreat was a spiritual festival, and we were filled with happiness and joy. It was an opportunity for us to experience heavenly happiness on the earth. It was my most joyful moment in 2018."

Pastor Valerii Trenogin,
Bishop of The Association of Christian Churches of Western
Ural Mission

"I am very glad to be here at this grace-filled festivity. I am happy to see the church members enjoying it with happiness. I loved the retreat very much. I received much grace especially when I praised the Lord of the cross during Campfire Praise & Worship."

The Wisdom from Above Is Gentle

“But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, unwavering, without hypocrisy. And the seed whose fruit is righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace” (James 3:17-18).

People usually say that when they are watching others playing chess, they can see better moves than those the players make. Though the one who is playing is actually a better player, he may miss basic things if he is under great pressure to win the game. But those who are watching the game are not under any pressure, so they have a better overall view and room to think. Our Christian lives are sometimes similar to this situation.

When we seek our own benefit, we may not be able to discern the truth. Even if we know what the truth is, we may not be able to give up the benefit. Then, we cannot act according to the truth. But if we have cast off greed and our heart is filled with the truth, we will be able to easily discern the truth, so it isn't difficult to practice the truth. We can also give clear answers to problems concerning other people, though not our own. This is the wisdom that we can gain through being spiritually 'gentle.'

1. The Spiritual Meaning of 'Gentleness'

Dictionaries say 'being gentle' means being kind, mild, and calm. But 'gentleness' spiritually refers to the heart filled with the abundant truth and contains the freedom of the truth so that it can give up everything that we have. To achieve this heart, we must not have selfish motives and must be full of the truth.

Jesus is the best role-model of giving up everything with the heart of abundant truth. Jesus is the Son of God and He had no sin or blemish. His heart was truth itself. While He was living on this earth, He lived only by the will of God and offered up His everything. Without eating or resting well, He preached the gospel of the kingdom of heaven and healed the sick. He toiled so hard and shed so many tears. Eventually He even offered up His life for the souls. By doing so, He saved countless people and led them to heaven.

We can also learn about gentleness through the deeds of Abram (later named Abraham) in Genesis 13. Abram and Lot received blessings from God. As their livestock were many, their shepherds had quarrels with each other. When Abram found it out, he made up his mind to separate from Lot. He said to Lot, "Please separate from me; if to the left, then I will go to the right; or if to the right, then I will go to the left." In fact, the reason Lot received blessings was that he stayed with Abram who was loved by God, and moreover, Lot was Abram's nephew. But Lot chose the better land first. Abram didn't have any kind of discomfort towards him. It was because he had so much gentleness of heart that he could give up everything if the other person desired it. Since Abram showed such goodness, God promised him that He would give all the lands in north, south, east, and west, and also give him countless descendants.

Abram always showed overflowing gentleness and acted with much more goodness than what was required of him, so he received great blessings from God. On the contrary, in this world people say it is wise to keep our own things, without giving up anything. They also say if they are struck once, they should strike back. If they give one, they want to receive more than that given. They think that is wisdom. But God says it is more blessed to give than to receive (Acts 20:35). When we give and share in the name of the Lord, we will receive greater blessings from God. This is a way of blessing and true wisdom.

But as long as we have selfishness, anger, and greed in our hearts, we cannot show abundant gentleness. That is why 'gentleness' is defined as 'the heart having the truth abundantly and from that truth we can give up our everything.'

2. Blessings Enjoyed through the Wisdom of Gentleness

When we broaden our hearts with the truth, sacrifice ourselves, and serve others, it is the wisdom to gain the hearts of others. If our heart is full of the truth and we have overflowing gentleness, we can give ours to others unsparingly and we will have no discomfort when we see others are doing better than we are. We can also help others do better. If we won't pursue the minor benefits immediately before us, we can receive God-given blessings and understand why it is wiser and more blessed to give than to receive and why those who serve become great.

I have been well aware of the principle. So, since the opening of the church, we supported other newly-opened churches, though we didn't have enough for ourselves. We saved just one more penny to spend for world mission and saving more souls. Even when some people asked us to give our 'shirt' to them, we gave it to them even with our 'coat' if it could save them. Even when we were struck on our right cheek for no reason, we offered even the left cheek if that could bring about peace.

When some tried to deceive us, we just let them do so though we knew they were lying. We were struck not because we did not have the power to fight back. We offered the other cheek not because we were foolish, but because we had earnest love to save souls and believed the works of the almighty God. So, God let us grow into a mega-sized church in a short period of time and we received overflowing blessings.

It is the same when you work for God's kingdom and take care of the souls. Apostle Paul said in 2 Corinthians 12:15, "I will most gladly spend and be expended for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less?" To those who do not know the truth, when you give everything with your love for God and love for souls, it may seem that you are wasting your possessions.

But, as you keep doing so, you will be loved by God and the people more. When Apostle Paul gave up his everything, he gained workers like Timothy who considered Paul like a father and loved him. Also, he gained a church and members who would be willing to even pluck out their eyes and give them to him (Galatians 4:15). Moreover, we can gain wisdom to discern the truth clearly, and receive strength to save souls and heal souls who have broken hearts.

3. The Freedom of the Truth Comes Out of Gentleness

Gentleness is a quality of the heart that is being able to yield everything because we abundantly possess the truth in our hearts while at the same time we have freedom in that truth. Here, let us delve into the meaning of the 'freedom of truth.' John 8:32 says, "...and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." To those who are not living by the truth, the truth may feel like shackles. But, to those who know the truth and completely act by it, they feel free within the truth. They know the law of God is love and a way to blessing, so they have no fear in it.

For example, if you do not have the faith to keep the Lord's Day, you may feel burdened about the commandment about keeping it. You may think the words that tell you not to conduct business or not to participate in worldly entertainment on the day are like shackles. But those who truly keep it from the depth of their heart do not feel burdened by it. They know they recognize the spiritual sovereignty of God by keeping it and thereby they will receive peace and blessings from Him.

When they keep the Lord's Day, they are protected from accidents or calamities throughout the week. Also, they even can earn more money when they do not open their shops that day. God can give them seven days' worth of income during the other six days. He can also prevent unexpected expenses. Because God protects them from diseases and accidents, they do not have to pay for any medicine or hospital bills. When we understand the true meaning of the command about keeping the Lord's Day and act by the truth, our souls may prosper and we will be protected always. Then, we feel very free in our lives.

For another example, if we cast off hatred according to the truth, we will feel unburdened and happy. You might have felt burdened by hatred and felt sorry before God. But if you cast off this sinful nature, you feel so happy since the truth sets you free from the yoke of sin and frees you from the burdens of sin. In addition, if your heart is full of the truth, you can also extend that freedom to others. You do not judge or condemn others just because they are not living by the truth, but instead you can encourage them and strengthen them so they too can live by the truth.

'To be filled with the truth in our hearts', here, does not just mean knowing what truth is by our knowledge alone. Those who know the truth only as knowledge may think in arrogance they know everything though they know very little (1 Corinthians 8:1). Such people judge and condemn other people. When it seems to them that someone wants to be served, they are quick to judge and condemn. They conclude that the person wants to be served. But they themselves do not realize that they are violating the truth telling us not to judge any of our brothers.

On the other hand, those who have truth in the heart will consider the person's measure of faith and think from the other person's point of view. They can discern the right from the wrong with the word, but even when they see the untruth of others, they can still cover their faults with love. Because they received compassion of God when they had many transgressions, they also show compassion for others.

4. Understanding Follows Gentleness

When the truth comes into our heart abundantly and if we have generous hearts in the freedom of truth, we can have understanding that shows us the pathway clearly in everything. Jesus taught the heart of God to people in the freedom of truth.

In John 8, Jews brought to Jesus a woman who was caught in the act of adultery. They asked Jesus what to do about her. According to the Law of Moses, they had to stone her to death. But if Jesus had said that, they would have said it was against His own teaching that was mainly about love and forgiveness. If Jesus had told them to forgive her, they would have condemned Him for neglecting the Law. At the time, Jesus just began to write something on the ground without saying anything.

When the people asked Him to answer, He said, "He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her," and He continued writing on the ground. What Jesus had been writing on the ground at the time were the sins that the people there had committed. When the people saw Jesus writing the sins that they had committed, they did not dare to throw a stone at her. One by one they left that place with qualms of conscience, and only Jesus and the woman remained. And Jesus said, "I do not condemn you, either. Go. From now on sin no more." This woman who had been shaking with fear and embarrassment was saved so dramatically. She must have kept in her heart the word of Jesus.

Jesus was truth itself and knew the heart and will of God clearly. So, He had the freedom of truth. He was gentle enough to understand the heart of sinners and show compassion to them. He could show the wisdom to let the people understand the true will of God by saying, "He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her."

If He had had the least bit of condemnation in His heart, He could not have given such an answer. And if He had told them to forgive her only because she was pitiful, people might have said He was violating the Law and He would have been put into a very difficult situation.

All parts of the Law of God contain this love of God, but people cannot be forgiven just because they are pitiful. It is because if God just forgave all sinners with sympathy, sin would spread like the ferment of yeast and more people would fall into destruction. That is why God designated punishment for sins. Jesus could show such wisdom as saving all people because He fulfilled the Law with love and knew the heart of God in the Law (1 Timothy 2:4).

One more thing we should realize here is that Jesus did not mention the sins of the people with words but He wrote them on the ground. He did not speak out those things to hurt the feelings of the people. He knew He might invite their resistance if He pointed out evil peoples' sins directly. He just let them read the sins written on the ground so that they would quietly go away.

Sometimes, when a person talks about the fault of somebody else, the listener may become embarrassed and say, "So, don't you have this kind of fault, too!" What is meant by saying something like this is, "Mind your own business." Of course, it is not right to talk about someone's fault. But though someone is doing something wrong, it is not right either to criticize that person right in front of him/her. That is to pay back evil with evil, and by doing so you are judging and condemning in the same way. Also, the person who hears such words may have ill-feelings although what he heard is true.

Thus, if we know the truth only as knowledge, not cultivating it in our heart, we may easily hurt others with that knowledge. We should cultivate the Word of God in hearts and then will be able to embrace other people.

If you have gentleness in your hearts, you will not hurt others' feelings and you will not judge or condemn others. You will consider them as precious souls and lead them with the truth. When you have this kind of a heart, you will gain the wisdom to lead others to life. This is the wisdom gained from gentleness.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, Romans 15:1-2 reads, "Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those without strength and not just please ourselves. Each of us is to please his neighbor for his good, to his edification."

As God's children, we should look after the weak, give happiness to our neighbors, and show them virtuous generosity with good deeds. I pray in the name of the Lord that you will achieve gentleness in your heart, give out the fragrance of goodness anytime anywhere, and become children who are the source of pride to God.

Russian Pastors in Manmin Summer Retreat 2018

Pastor Leonid Artyuh,
Kaliningrad New Start Church

"I felt like a dream in Korea. While listening to the message in the seminar, I realized that I had lacked goodness, one of the keys to opening the spiritual realm. I was so much blessed to witness people receive healing and glorify God and the Lord."

Pastor Leonid Artuh,
Kaliningrad New Start Church

"I felt the Holy Spirit's work and grace throughout the retreat. I felt happy to see the church members who love and serve God sincerely. I saw many miracles happening. I was awe-struck by the fact that I was in the middle of the scene where people testified to their healing by the power of God!"

This book will bring miracles into your life!

"A pure heart is a key to the door of wisdom.
True wisdom comes out from the heart, not the head."

“I am full of thanks for the word of life and powerful works!”

Sister Angélica Campos, age 57, Peru Manmin Church

One day, I happened to listen to Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee’s sermon “Heaven” on Enlace TV, which is the leading TV station for Spanish-speaking people. I received much grace and registered as a member of Peru Manmin Church in May 2012.

I live in Cerro de Pasco located at 4,380 meters above sea level. It takes me 16 hours for a round trip to Peru Manmin Church in Lima, the capital city. I used to leave home every Friday night and arrive in Lima at 5 on Saturday morning. I stayed in my children’s homes, attended Sunday Morning and Evening Services and left for my house in the evening. Nevertheless, I never skipped the Lord’s Day because I was so happy to lead my believing life. I was healed of urinary incontinence that had troubled me for 14 years and got a decent job by Dr. Lee’s transcending-space-and-time prayer.

Since 2014, people in my neighborhood have learned about Manmin and we gathered to join in the Manmin’s worship services online. A local sanctuary was established in my area where we gathered together and joined in all kinds of worship services in the sanctuary and even had daily Daniel Prayer Meetings. I am serving the church as a leader. I am so grateful.

On July 4, 2018, my husband entered hospital due to anemia and gastrointestinal hemorrhage. His hemoglobin level was 7.6g/dL though it is between 13.0 and 16.0g/dL for the healthy. He was pushed to the doorstep of death. The doctor said it could be a cancer and had him undergo various medical exams. I constantly helped him receive Senior Pastor’s prayer via the internet and smartphone. On July 6, I prayed for him with the handkerchief on which Senior Pastor had prayed on his body (Acts 19:11-12). The test result finally came out and showed he had gastric ulcer, which was contrary to the doctor’s suspected diagnosis.

I longed to express my gratefulness by participating in Manmin Summer Retreat 2018 held in Korea. I also wanted to receive healing of my kidney disease that had stuck with me for ten years. But one of the symptoms of this disease is serious edema in the hot weather. When it was hot, my lower body swelled so much that my waist size increased from 30inch to 46inch. I hesitated for a moment because it was scorching hot in South Korea. Nevertheless, I had faith that I could be healed of it if I went to Korea. I prepared for it with a longing heart and repented thoroughly of my sin as God gave me a lot of grace.

I finally went to the retreat. During the seminar on the first night, Rev. Soojin Lee prayed for the sick with the handkerchief on which Senior Pastor had prayed. I felt the fire of the Holy Spirit coming upon me. I found out I had no more pain and had been healed. When I went to Seoul after the retreat, it was scorching hot with heat wave warnings issued. But I had no pain or no discomfort though I walked a lot.

On this visit, I felt the great love of God who is with Manmin as well as received the healing. I give all thanks and glory to God and my Lord of love. Thank you, Senior Pastor for praying for me.

“I was healed of atopic dermatitis after I stopped enjoying worldly pleasure!”

Sister Yerim Kim, age 19,
12th grader, Manmin Central Church

When I went to elementary school, atopic dermatitis intermittently occurred to the rear part of my calves. But I was healed through Senior Pastor Dr. Jaerock Lee’s prayer. But it reoccurred when I was a 9th grader, and it rapidly worsened.

As I got a smartphone, I listened to worldly popular songs, watched some videos that could be harmful to my spirit, and got into smartphone games. I had no interest in study or a believing life since I was in love with the worldly pleasure. Finally, I came to suffer from serious dermatitis on my hands and feet. I felt itchy on my hands, and it spread to my soles, so I walked lame. When I went to hospital, I was diagnosed with atopic dermatitis and they gave me medication.

I took the medicine and put on ointment, but it was of no use. Although Senior Pastor has always told us to love God foremost of all, I was full of attachment to the world. I could not even think about going to him. When I saw myself returning to the worldly things after I stopped for a while, I thought, ‘Am I a human? Do I lack conscience?’

In late July 2018, when Manmin Summer Retreat was drawing near, I thought I could not live like that any longer. I went to Daniel Prayer Meeting and saw many church members pray earnestly. When I saw them, I came to think I wanted to be renewed. I deleted all games and more than 200 pop songs on my smartphone. Afterwards, as I prayed more, I felt more comfortable and joyful as if a new heart were beating in me.

I also decided to join in the tug-of-war match as a member of the first Great Grand Parish during the summer retreat. To cast away changing mind, I went to the practice every day. In the meantime, the atopic dermatitis that affected my hands and feet improved quickly. Any medicine had not worked before, but it noticeably improved while I was being renewed. I was healed of it even before the retreat.

In the past, I had to wear socks even in summer, but now I don’t have to. I tried to have my hands not seen by anybody due to the affected parts, but now I don’t any longer. Hallelujah!

In early August, I participated in Manmin Summer Retreat and experienced amazing power of God. I shed many tears feeling the love of God, the Lord, and the shepherd. I was blessed so much. These days, I feel so refreshed and want to renew myself and serve my parents more. I give all thanks and glory to the living God who is good.
