We Deliver Happiness of Life!

32nd Anniversary of Manmin News

It is the 32nd anniversary of Manmin News that has been leading numerous souls around the world to the way of life and salvation.

Manmin News delivers sermons of Rev. Jaerock Lee, various feature stories, news stories, and testimonies of the believers worldwide who experienced the power of God. It helps believers in spiritual growth and spreads the gospel to the ends of the earth.

Hyangran Kim of Chinese parish read the Manmin News while she was in hospital and came to our church. She was healed of severe arm pain and her bent left middle finger was straightened in the church. Her entire family accepted the Lord. Her husband Myeongho Lee quit smoking and drinking and was healed of a herniated disc.

Manmin News is available and read in several languages by many overseas believers. Yordanis Castro of Ecuador says that after listening to the sermons of Rev. Jaerock Lee, he quit drinking and drugs and his life turned around completely. He is reading Manmin News in the Spanish edition on the church website.

Viktor Tsyganenko of Estonia was healed of swine flu through Rev. Jaerock Lee's prayer transcending time and space. He is also a regular reader of Manmin News. Members of Moldova Manmin Church print out the PDF file of Russian Manmin News and use them for evangelism. Victor Giménez of Venezuela came to understand God's will clearly through Manmin's ministry, and he is spreading videos of the "Message of the Cross" sermons and Manmin News enthusiastically.

Manmin News was first printed on May 17, 1987. The first English news was printed in January 1991. In November 2012, the Internet Manmin News service was launched (www.manminnews.com). Editions are printed in Korean, English, Chinese, Japanese, Russian, and Urdu and are delivered to all Manmin members around the world.

CONGRATULATIONS!

"Good For Spiritual Growth, Great Help to Pastors!"

Rev. Martin Alvarez, Argentina

Manmin News is such a great blessing. It delivers holiness gospel preached by Rev. Jaerock Lee, the signs and wonders and power of God all over the world.

We print Manmin News in size A3 (11.7 x 16.5 in) and share it with many believers. They love reading it as well as sharing it with their neighbors and coworkers.

I also deliver them to the pastors association in Florencio Varela and the theology students who listen to my Measure of Faith seminar every Thursday. They ask me if I have the new edition of Manmin News. When I don't they take the previous editions with them.

The pastors deliver the holiness gospel on the Manmin News and say they feel the spiritual authority whenever they deliver it. Also, the testimonies of those who experienced the power of God help build up the faith of many believers.

The importance of your dedication and hard work for the spreading of the gospel of Jesus Christ cannot be stressed enough. I thank you for your devotion once again.

2019 Parents' Sunday

Our church had the special events for the Parents' Sunday in the main sanctuary after the 2nd Sunday morning service on May 12.

The attendees were senior believers who were 70 or older. Pastor Soojin Lee added the hope of heaven to them with her message. The performing teams also gave special presentations of dancing and praising. The Senior Deaconesses' Association serve them with rice cake and soft drinks every year.

Fruit of Peace

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.” Gal. 5:22-23

Senior Pastor Rev. Jaerock Lee

Just as salt gives flavor and prevents rotting, God wants the believers to show grace and purify their neighbors and bear the fruit of peace. Let us delve into the 3rd fruit among the 9 fruits of the Holy Spirit, peace.

1. Fruit of Peace

Romans 12:18 says, “If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all men.” Hebrews 12:14 says, “Pursue peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord.”

Peace here refers to the heart with which we can yield to others even if we are right, and to be accepting and be OK with anything within the truth. It is to seek others' benefit and not to be biased. It is not to flaunt yourself and to have no conflict with anyone by not focusing on their shortcomings.

God's children should be at peace with everyone. It is all the more important to have peace in the church. Where peace is broken, God cannot work any longer, and the enemy devil will bring accusations. Even if we work hard and produce good results, we can't be commended if peace was broken in the process.

In Genesis 26, Isaac received God's blessing when he was living among the Philistines. The people there became jealous of him and stopped up his wells many times.

However, Isaac did not quarrel or fight. He just went to another location quietly and dug another well. When he pursued peace, God blessed him to get a well everywhere he went. The Philistines realized God was with him and would no longer confront him.

If Isaac quarreled or fought with them because he suffered injustice, he'd have had to leave the area. Even if you make a good, logical case in your argument, it wouldn't work for those who are already trying to argue with an evil intention. For this reason Isaac just yielded every time and bore the fruit of peace.

The same goes for us as well. God can lead us to prosperity in all things when we bear the fruit of peace.

2. To Bear the Fruit of Peace

1) Have Peace with God

What is the single most important thing to have peace with God? It is to have no barrier of sin.

If we walk in the Truth, we're at peace with God, and we're confident. Even though we're not perfect yet, as long as we're trying our best within our measure of faith, we can be at peace with God. If we bow before idols or fail to keep the Lord's Day just to have peace with unbelieving family members, it is creating a wall of sin before God, thereby breaking peace with Him.

God drives away our adversary the devil when we please God. He can change the mind of the evil ones so we can have peace with everyone (Prov. 16:7). Suppose you keep on trying your best but the other party keeps on breaking peace. In this case if you just keep on acting in truth, God will cause all things to work for good.

2) Have Peace with Yourself

In order for us to have peace with ourselves, we have to cast away all forms of evil and become holy. As long as we have evil in our heart, it will be agitated according to the situations. We can have peace in our heart when we choose the truth in any situation.

Some people try to walk in the truth in an effort to have peace with God, but they don't have true peace in them. Generally it is because of their self-righteousness and frameworks of personality that are not formed properly.

For example, you have no peace because you're bound by God's word too much. You don't practice the word with love for God but because you're afraid you might be punished if you don't. In this case, rather than focusing on the action, you should first try to cultivate love for God in your heart.

Also, you might not have peace with yourself because of pessimistic personality. You're trying to practice the truth, but you're not satisfied with yourself. You beat yourself up and make yourself suffer. In this case you need to become a spiritual child.

Those children who believe in the love of their parents, even if they've done something wrong, they do not hide but ask for forgiveness. Those who truly repented do not lose heart by criticizing themselves. Even if you face trials for your wrongdoings, they will turn to blessings if you pass them with joy and thanksgiving.

Therefore, you have to believe that God loves you and makes you perfect as long as you try to change yourself, even if you're not perfect. As we keep on storing up sincere heart and actions before God, we'll have peace with ourselves and confidence.

3) Have Peace with Everyone

In order to have peace with everyone, we have to sacrifice ourselves. Paul professed “I die daily.” We must not insist on our things, our positions, or our way of doing things in order to have peace with everyone.

If we cultivate peace, we won't be unbecoming before others or try to boast of ourselves. We humble ourselves and serve others. We won't be partial or one-sided. We'll put ourselves in the shoes of others, and even if our opinions seem better, we are willing to go with other's opinions. However, advice and rebuke based on love is necessary for those who are bringing destruction upon themselves by committing sins.

To have peace with everyone we must not insist on our self-righteousness or frameworks. ‘Frameworks’ is your belief that you're right. It is formed based on your personality and tastes. Self-righteousness is to force your frameworks on others.

Everyone has different personalities, upbringing, education, and level of faith. They all have different standards of right and wrong. One must not insist on their opinions but think from others' points of view also, so they can have peace.

Jesus also said we can give offerings to God after we made peace with our brothers first (Matt. 5:23-24). Those who have peace with God and with themselves will not break peace with others. Even if others act in evil and break peace, they keep on serving and sacrificing, and eventually maintain peace.

3. What We Should Realize While Pursuing Peace

It is important to speak words of goodness to pursue peace (James 3:6; Prov. 18:21). Words of goodness give strength and courage to others. They are good remedy to revive the souls (Prov. 16:24). On the contrary, evil words break peace (2 Chron. 10). Therefore, we can have peace when we see, hear, and speak only good things (Eph. 4:29).

Next, suppose you think you don't have any hard-feelings, and it is others who are breaking peace. However, is it really other people's fault? You might have hurt their feelings being inconsiderate without realizing it. You should really think about whether or not others think of you as a peacemaker.

Lastly, true peace must be maintained from the heart. Even if you're not at peace with God or yourself, you can be at peace with others to some extent. Because you know you shouldn't break peace, you just control your emotions not to have any falling out with anyone. However, having peace outwardly doesn't necessarily mean you've borne fruit of peace.

In order to have true peace, we should not just control our emotions but we should sincerely serve others and their interests ahead of our own.

4. Blessing for Peacemakers

Those who have peace with God, with themselves, and with everyone will have the authority to drive away darkness (Matt. 5:9). It is in this way that they can spread peace.

Jesus' death is like that of a dying grain of wheat that bears countless fruits (John 12:24). He paid the price for the forgiveness of sins of countless dying souls and reconciled them to God. As a result, Jesus became the King of kings and the Lord of lords and received great honor and glory.

God wants His children to sacrifice themselves and die daily like Jesus and in doing so, be able to bear much fruit. Jesus also said in John 15:8, "My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit, and so prove to be My disciples." Therefore, let us follow the desires of the Holy Spirit to bear the fruit of peace and lead many souls to the way of salvation.

Hebrews 12:14 says, "Pursue peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no one will see the Lord." Even if we think we're right, if others have hard-feelings and conflicts arise, what should we do? We should look back on ourselves and become holy and free of evil so that we can see the Lord.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I pray in the name of the Lord that you will bear the fruit of peace with God, yourself, and everyone so you can enjoy the authority of being God's children on this earth as well as the blessing of seeing the Lord in heaven.

Thank you, Manmin!

The "Thank you, Manmin!" campaign went on from Apr.7 to May 3 in 2 rounds. We're introducing some of the testimonies of the church members. We give all thanks and glory to our Lord who is the master of our lives.

"I Am Happy Thanks to the Lord!"

Yeo Baek (32, 17th Parish)

I met the Lord while I was in high school. I came to learn about the love of the Lord through the sermons of Rev. Jaerock Lee, and my life was totally changed.

Before meeting the Lord I always had nervousness and depression. I was filled with thoughts of suicide. But through God's word, I came to know about love, consideration for others and goodness. Whenever I felt hard I sought God, and He always let me feel He was with me. I could overcome anything through His love.

Furthermore, I was healed of nephropylitis and injured ankle. My daughter was also conceived by the Senior Pastor's prayer. She is growing up very well. God blessed me with a good house and protects my family all the time. I am so thankful!

"My life is changed through the Lord's love"

Sukjoon Moon (23, 2nd Young Adults' Mission)

I had severe pneumonia when I was 5, but I was healed by Rev. Jaerock Lee's prayer. In the summer retreat of August 2013, I witnessed that rain stopped, the clouds disappeared, and the blue sky was seen by the Senior Pastor's prayer. He also praised God with all his heart. I was so touched by his trust in God and love for the Lord.

After that, I could feel the love of God and the sacrifice of the Lord very deeply whenever I prayed, and my life was no longer the same. Worship service was my happiness, and my words and actions also began to change. I tried to live a holy life.

My life has been prosperous in the Lord. I could feel the love of God the Father and the Lord more deeply through the Senior Pastor, and through that love I was changed. Thank you, I love you!

"I Met the Almighty Lord"

Haeok Choi (51, Chinese 1st Parish)

I was guided to Manmin Central Church in June 2006. I saw the New York Crusade with the speaker Rev. Jaerock Lee. I saw so many people getting healed of various diseases through the Senior Pastor's prayer.

I was overwhelmed by the works of the living God. The message on "Why Jesus is our only Savior" touched my heart, too. I was sure anything was possible through the Lord.

Since then, I've been living a happy life in the Lord, being set free from all diseases. Especially, once my appendix burst and it became peritonitis. The doctor said I couldn't survive at all without surgery, but I was healed just by the prayer with the handkerchief on which the Senior Pastor prayed (Acts 19:11-12).

I give thanks to the Lord who has blessed me to have a healthy and happy life.

“The Lord Healed My Son’s Cerebral Palsy”

Kiran (28, Delhi Manmin Church)

My son, Mayank, sustained damage to his brain and internal organs due to lack of oxygen at birth. He is 4-years-old but he couldn’t eat or speak properly. He couldn’t stand up on his own without leaning on something. I and my husband Kashiram had to always carry him.

He couldn’t run around playing with other kids. He just sat all the time. I was so heartbroken to see him.

Cerebral Palsy

My son never got better, so we went to a big hospital for an exam. We were devastated by the result.

He was diagnosed with cerebral palsy due to hypoxic brain damage. The doctor said there is no medicine on this earth that can cure a damaged brain and he had to live in a wheelchair for the rest of his life.

He also said later he could lose hearing and sight as well. It was a hopeless situation, and we didn’t know what to do for our son’s future.

Next day, with the sorrow still in my heart, I went to work carrying my son.

I explained to my boss, Nancy, what the doctor had told me. She wanted to hear the details because she used to be a nurse.

In fact, Nancy had been talking about God and Jesus Christ to me, feeling compassion for my son. However, I wouldn’t listen to her because I was a Hindu.

But finding out there was no human way to solve my son’s problem, I guess I was ready to clutch at any straws.

Going to Church

We heard God could heal all kinds of incurable diseases, and we finally went to Delhi Manmin Church.

On March 24, 2019, I went to a church for the first time in my life. Everything was new and I didn’t understand any of the messages. I even had a nightmare that night. However, on the Friday the 29th, I still attended the special healing session of Manmin Central Church through GCN TV. I saw the testimonies of the people who got healed by God’s power, and I also had hope that my son could be healed, too.

Pastor John Kim advised me I had to listen to the ‘Message of the Cross’ of the Senior Pastor. My husband and I listened to those messages and accepted the Lord as our Savior. We discarded all idols, too. We believed only Jesus Christ can solve our problem, and received the prayer for the sick of the Senior Pastor on YouTube.

Amazingly, my son began to recover little by little. He could hold on to the stairs and go up the steps. He began to balance his body. We had faith that he could be healed and prepared for the special healing session of April. We fasted for 3 days and repented all our past wrongdoings.

In the Special Healing Session

Finally, on Apr. 26, Friday, we attended the Friday all-night service of Manmin Central Church in Seoul through GCN TV. I had a stomachache during the message in the 1st part of the service, but in the 2nd part, the healing session, when I received the handkerchief prayer for the congregation, something hot came upon my body and the pain was gone. My husband always felt heavy, but he began to feel light since he saw an image of a dark man going out of him during the prayer.

The most incredible thing is my son Mayank began to walk after the prayer! Later, he could walk quite well. He could eat on his own. He even peeled off the wrapping of a candy and ate it while he couldn’t even hold onto it in the past. Hallelujah!

Now, Mayank plays with toys and runs around like other kids. He speaks very well, too. The kindergarten teacher was so surprised, too. His recovery is so fast that no one can believe he had such a big problem unless they see the medical records. I am spreading this good news of salvation to my neighbors and one of them accepted.

I give all thanks to our Lord who has healed my son of the incurable disease and disability. I give all thanks and glory to the living God!
